Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Know Your Faith

Pope Francis says.....” How do I look at the Crucifix?”

One who wishes to know Jesus must look within to the cross, where His glory is revealed. To look within to the cross. In the image of Jesus crucified is unveiled the mystery of the Death of the Son of God as supreme act of love, source of life and of salvation for humanity of all times. We were healed in His wounds.

I can think: “How do I look at the crucifix? As a work of art, to see if it’s beautiful or not beautiful? Or do I look inside, enter in Jesus’ wounds to His heart? Do I look at the mystery of God annihilated to death, as a slave, as a criminal?” Don’t forget this: to look at the crucifix, but to look at it inside. There is this beautiful devotion to pray an Our Father for each one of the five wounds: when we pray that Our Father, we seek to enter through Jesus’ wounds inside, inside, right to His heart. And there we will learn the great wisdom of Christ’s mystery, the great wisdom of the cross.

He paid that price to ransom me, you, all of us, each one of us. This is the mystery of Christ. It goes to His wounds, enters, contemplates, sees Jesus but from inside.

Meditation on Sunday Scriptures

DRIVEN BY CRUCIFIED LOVE

"THEN JESUS, UTTERING A LOUD CRY, BREATHED HIS LAST." –MARK 15:37

Happy Holy Week! May this be one of the greatest weeks of the greatest year of your life. In one week, in every Catholic church in the world, at every Mass on the first day of the Easter season, we will be challenged to make the greatest act of faith and love in our lives by renewing our baptismal promises. We will be invited to give our lives totally to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit and thereby reject Satan, all his works, and all his empty promises.

Why would we make such a radical commitment which would result in losing our lives? (Lk 9:24) We make or renew our baptismal promises only because of love (see 2 Cor 5:14). We decide to lose our lives only because of the love of Jesus, Who lost His life for us on the cross. Therefore, the Church calls us to read about Jesus' Passion and death in today's liturgy. As we "behold the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died," our richest gain we "count but loss and pour contempt" on all our pride. "There is no greater love than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends" (Jn 15:13).

Driven by crucified love, let us make the greatest decision of our lives and renew our baptismal promises.
